Cahoon Museum OF AMERICAN ART

2013 Exhibition Schedule & Membership Information

Housed in a beautiful 1775 Georgian Colonial home, the Cahoon Museum of American Art has eight galleries and hosts six to eight special exhibitions annually. Highlights of the permanent collection are on view throughout the year, and include the paintings of celebrated Cape folk artists Ralph and Martha Cahoon and 19th century gems by Ralph Blakelock, William Bradford, James Buttersworth, John J. Enneking and Erastus Salisbury Field.

The Cahoon Museum needs more room! Expansion plans for the Museum are on view in the entry gallery so please take a look, or visit our website for more information: www.cahoonmuseum.org.

Open year round, except January. Tours are available by request.
