WELCOME TO THE 29TH ANNUAL BRUSH OFF! ART AUCTION & FESTIVAL

Cahoon Museum of American Art's largest and longest-running fundraiser

Cahoon Museum of American Art is Cape Cod's most unique art museum, showcasing a rare blend of history and innovation in both the exhibits and in the Museum itself. Built in 1782 with a modern gallery addition completed in 2016, the Museum is the perfect place to experience a wide array of inspiring and vibrant works and view a permanent collection that spans from the 1800s through the contemporary.

YOUR BID MATTERS

As the Museum has grown, so has the Brush Off! Hundreds mark their Independence Day holiday calendars to spend their Saturday on the Cotuit Village Green celebrating art with their neighbors and friends, but not all know that this event is vital to the Cahoon Museum to carry out our mission to expand knowledge, enrich the spirit, and engage the heart. We rely on the bounty of events like this to present exciting, educational and innovative programming.

THANK YOU!

So, bid generously in the silent and live auctions, enjoy the fun and beauty of the day, and help us to continue to bring dynamic and inspiring art experiences to our community.

ARTISTS ON LOCATION

Local artists will be creating art from 9:00am to noon on the Cotuit Village Green (1), Ropes Beach (2), Loop Beach (3), and other scenic locations around Cotuit. Map will be available at Membership and Paddle Registration table. Watch them work and then bid on their new artworks in the Live Art Auction at 1pm.

The pink paintbrush icon represents artists that have additional "wet" works that will be available during the Live Art Auction.

FEATURED ARTIST

ELIZABETH MUMFORD

A Painting is Never Finished,
Cahoon Museum 2019

Acrylic on board

Minimum bid $550

Cape Cod artist, Liz Mumford celebrates the Cotuit community in her special painting for this year's Brush Off. Her charming and whimsical painting features many notable Cotuit Village locations from the Cotuit Federated Church, the Cotuit Library, the Kettle Ho, and the Cotuit Fresh Market along with the Museum's landmark Crocker house. The wording around the painting reads: "A painting is never finished, it simply stops in interesting places." Since artists can take creative liberties, Liz has playfully rearranged geography to fit her composition, which includes the Cahoon Museum as close to the heart of the village. She filled the lively scene with an artist (is it Ralph Cahoon?) painting a mermaid on the dock, beach activity at Sampson's Island, Brush Off artists painting en plein air around town, and many types of boats and Cotuit skiffs in the harbor. Liz will customize the painting for the winner and can add any number on the boats' sails!

MEMBERSHIP

Your Cahoon Museum Membership is your best tool to experience all that the Museum has to offer. Membership is more than discounts, free admission, and special access, it is also a great way to show your love of art and your support of the Museum.

Stop by the Membership booth to learn more, and to take advantage of special today-only promotions!

"We believe the Cahoon Museum is a hidden gem on the Cape. We volunteer to help get the word out about its unique permanent collection and the interesting exhibits that change frequently. As members, we attend receptions where we enjoy meeting with local and national artists."

— Len DiLorenzo & Annmarie Garceau

RAISE-A-PADDLE, ADOPT A TREE!

If you've driven down Route 28 recently, you have seen the environmental installation, Konstantin Dimopoulos: The Blue Trees. As the exhibit draws to a close, these trees now need to find their permanent homes. This year's Raise-A-Paddle allows you to support the Museum and beautify your yard by adopting a tree (or three!). Long after the environmentally-safe color fades, your yard will commemorate this bold art installation and your love of the Museum. Each tree comes with a certificate signed by the artist, Konstantin Dimopoulos. See Membership Table for species available.

Don't have room in your yard, but still want to help? Raise your paddle to help support this and our other exhibits, and we can make the sponsored trees available to local charities.
